"Today, companies are competing in a very different environment than they were only a few years ago. Rapid changes such as a globally interconnected environment, the Internet, big data analytics, advances in technology, and sustainability imperatives have required businesses to adapt their standard practices. Operations management (OM) is the critical function through which companies can succeed in this competitive landscape. Operations management concepts are not confined to one department. Rather, they are far-reaching, affecting every functional aspect of the organization. Whether studying accounting, finance, human resources, information technology, management, marketing, or purchasing, students need to understand the critical impact operations management has on any business"--
