

Calendar of Events for Summer 2009

June

June 6 — Kids Day on the Square in downtown Wooster is a great way to kick off summer vacation — with games, activities, crafts, animals and food from 1-4 p.m. Mayor Bob Breneman will be on hand to present the 2009 All American Kids Awards. This free event is presented by Main Street Wooster and is sponsored by Embarq and LuK USA. It also features inflatable bounce houses sponsored by Clear Picture and Donato's bike drawing.

June 6-7 — Public tours will be held at the Zimmerman-Bury Octagon house, 10095 Wadsworth Road, Marshallville. Period dressed volunteers will be working in the vegetable garden, quilting, making herbal soap and restoring a Civil War-era cannon. You can also picnic while listening to a period calliope. For more information visit <http://zimmermanburyoctagonhouse.org>.

June 19 — The first Concert & Cruise In of the summer will feature "The Sixties 4" and hundreds of classic cars and street rods in downtown Wooster from 7-10 p.m. Food vendors will be on site. This event is sponsored by D+S Distribution and presented by Main Street Wooster.

June 19-21 — The Vietnam Traveling Memorial Wall will be in Loudonville. There will be a police escort of the Wall from Mansfield to Loudonville on June

The Chamber of Commerce is putting together a commemorative program booklet which will honor all of those from Ashland, Holmes, Knox, Richland and Wayne counties who died in the Vietnam War. If you have a family member who died in the war, contact Henley Graphics, publisher of the program, at 1-800-772-5488 to help complete the needed information.

June 25 — Ladies Night Out is an event to which ladies of all ages are invited to downtown Wooster for an evening dedicated to them. Downtown retailers and restaurants will offer special treats and demonstrations and ladies can participate in a drawing for a downtown gift basket. From 5-8 p.m., this event is presented by Main Street Wooster and is sponsored by The Daily Record.

July

July 1 — The Army Jazz Ambassadors will make a tour stop from 6:30-8 pm. in downtown Wooster for this free concert, which is presented by Main Street Wooster and is sponsored by Sprenger Retirement Centers and The Wooster
